

MISCALCULATE

Can feel when it is too good
Don't wanna be misunderstood
But it can't fade away, can't let it go so let it stay

Can feel when it is too good
Don't wanna be misunderstood
Can't let it go so let it stay
Just let these minutes tick away

The ones you likely to like
Or those you really like to hate but never dare to strike

My smile unfaded, I'm top x-rated
Well, it is like keeping some face
And falling from the grace
Don't give me your heart
Don't give me your heart is tainted
When you gave you miscalculated

No matter how you rephrase it
It all seems belated
Any names you gave it
You just miscalculated
